

35- 45 minutes

- Overview of general ethics & Why ethics are important for clinicians
- Medical bioethics principles
- Social work and other codes of ethics
- Confidentiality, boundaries, culture, competence, conflicts of interest
- Ethical decision-making frameworks
- Ranking of ethical principles
- Ethical Decision-Making Model
- Reamer's Ethical Framework
- Clinician skills necessary for ethical decision-making
- Knowledge, self-awareness, humility, reflection, objectivity

35-45 minutes

- Complex dilemmas in healthcare
- Decisional capacity
- Complex dilemmas with mandated reporting
- Confidentiality of minors

75-90 minutes

- Complex dilemmas in community practice settings
- Allocation of resources
- Complex dilemmas of duty to warn
- HIV status
- Complex ethical dilemmas involving boundaries and dual relationships
- Alliances and transitions
- Complex ethical dilemmas involving culture
- Discrimination vs documentation
- Key recommendations for resolving ethical dilemmas